Description

www.handrhorses.com This is "ROBERT REDFORD", a real gentle, fancy traveling, well trained, and versatile BAY FRIESIAN MORGAN CROSSBRED GELDING that is broke to ride and drive. This gelding has been ridden and driven by youth and been to town on the main roads. He will cross the deep water under harness or saddle without hesitation. He has been through the cross country driving courses and has pulled a wagon and cart. He has been in the arena under English and Western tack. He has had dressage training, he has been out in the pastures checking cattle, and in the deep woods trail riding. He has also been worked. He is 4 years old and stands 15.3 hands tall. He is extremely mature for his age, rides quiet, low headed, and calm. He lopes off with no hump and no buck. He has excellent ground manners and is very easy to work around. He stands tied, loads, bathes, and hauls with no fuss. He stands to harness, hitch, tack, mount, and groom. He has been hitched, harnessed, and driven by novice teamsters with no issues. He will not go any faster than you ask of him and he is easy to stop and steer. He is a very nice young horse that has a head full of sense, a pleasant, patient personality, and an aim to please attitude. He's user friendly stays broke. He is not spooky and he is traffic safe.
